

NSA Declassification/Release Instructions on file.

TOP SECRET FROTH

NSC BRIEFING

24 September 1954

SITUATION IN SOUTH VIETNAM

- I. Prolonged crisis reaching climax.
Diem, in mustering all strength he can, has announced new govt.
 - A. Contains Hoa Hao, Cao Dai leaders, certain nationalist elements.
- II. Coming over of these two sects is encouraging from Diem's standpoint-- crisis not solved yet.
 - A. Hinh still insubordinate.
 - B. Diem reassumed post of defense minister.
- III. Final solution likely to be determined by force French bring to bear on situation.
 - A. Primary element French strength is expeditionary corps.

TOP SECRET FROTH

TOP SECRET FROTH

B. Secondary element is psywar capability which used with telling effort against Diem.

IV. Comparative forces in Indochina.

A. 100,000 French ^{union} troops in [half U. Navy] south; 67,000 still in north; they far outclass Viet army (145,000 in south, 35,000 in north.) [redacted]

25X1A9a

B. Also, French control arms supply.

1. This bears on failure senior Viet officers support Diem.

C. Cao Dai and Hoa Hao forces total only some 25,000; not first-class.

V. But even with this meager armed backing premier might gain breathing space owing French reluctance to get involved in armed outbreak.

2

TOP SECRET FROTH

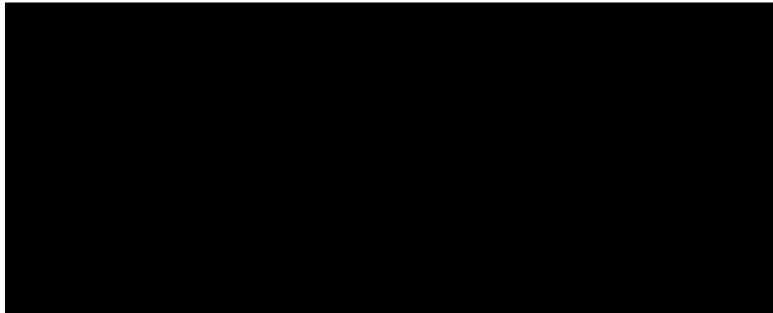

TOP SECRET FROTH

VI. Bao Dai remains key factor.

- A. Legal arbiter of govt change.
- B. All parties pressing him.
- C. French said Bao Dai would oust Diem in few days.
- D. Bao Dai cabled Diem 23 Sept permission to resign "if he so desired."
- E. No assurance yet he will approve newly-announced cabinet.

VII. French campaign against Diem, prolonged crisis have aided Viet Minh.

VIII. Viet Minh interested in political crisis in south.

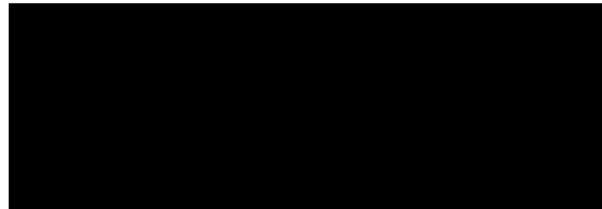

25X1D
NSA

³
TOP SECRET FROTH

TOP SECRET FROTH

C.

25X1D
NSA

1. Thus, French and Viet Minh have common desire govt in south which weak, not pro-US.

⁴
TOP SECRET FROTH

